TO FRUSTRATE THE ELECTION.

Pocahontas' Wild Scheme That May Cause Dire Confusion.

The features of the Walton election law, which requires every name on the ballot that the elector does not desire to vote for, to be marked out with a pencil at least two-thirds of the length of the name, and which limits the voters' time in the booth to two and a half minutes, may, and probably will, cause an unlooked for interruption in the course of events in the State, and especially in this city.

Waller Pocahontas Huff, who is nothing, if not altogether unique and original, has had a large number of blanks printed like the following:

"ROANOKE, Va., — 1895.
S. S. Brooke, Clerk of the Hustings Court for Roanoke City, Va.
I hereby notify you that I am a candidate for the office of Councilman for the city of Roanoke, Va., from the ward of said city, at the election to be held in said city on May 23, 1895.
Very respectfully,

Witness
These are being circulated freely in the colored ward and it is stated that there will be at least 300 candidates for Council from that ward, a large number of whom are colored.

If all the names are printed on the ballots, as the Walton law requires, it can be readily seen that it will be impossible to cast a ballot in that ward at the approaching election as the most expert voter cannot read and run his pencil through 300 names in the time allowed by law. If there is no election the present members will hold over. The scheme is a deep laid one and will perhaps be carried into the election next November when the State senators and delegates to the house of representatives are to be selected, and unless an extra session of the legislature is called Virginia's legislative officers and their representation in the United States Senate may be imperiled.

St. Andrew's Easter Day Services.

At St. Andrew's Catholic Church to-day there will be two masses, low mass at 8 o'clock and high mass at 10 o'clock. The usual interesting ceremonies of the day will be fully carried out and the music at the high mass will be according to the following program: Opening hymn, "Regina Caeli" by the choir; Generali's Kyrie, "Gloria and Credo," the offertory piece will be "Gaudiamus," a trio and chorus; "Sanctus and Agnus Dei," by Generali. The soloists will be Mrs. S. M. Brophy and Miss Mullin soprano; Miss Mary Carr, alto; Mr. J. J. Keely, tenor; Mr. T. Lazell, bass. The voices will be accompanied by the Roanoke Machine Works Orchestra under the leadership and direction of Mr. J. J. Keely, and Mrs. Brophy will preside at the organ. At the conclusion of the mass Father Lynch will deliver a sermon upon the gospel of the day.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with rheumatism and neuralgia, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him. Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by Christian & Barbee's drugstore.

Spring Lamb.

To-day Hook & Markley will offer the first spring lamb on the Roanoke market this season. Their business has increased so rapidly that in order to supply their customers they have been forced to extend their facilities and they are now prepared to furnish the choicest meat on this market fresh daily. It is an old firm and their excellent reputation is a sufficient guarantee as to their integrity. Their place of business is excellently located for convenience to the residence portion of the city, 141 Salem avenue, near Commerce street. An addition to their store has just been completed and they are now making daily all kinds of fresh sausages. They are open all day and the late comers need have no fear of always getting the very best the market affords.

OVER forty years has Pond's Extract been used by the people and profession as the best remedy for pain, sores, catarrh, etc.

AN ESCAPED MEXICAN COLONIST.

The Southern Negroes Badly Treated in Mexico.

HOUSTON, Texas, April 13.—Alexander Goodwin, an intelligent young negro, gives an interesting account of experiences and hardships being endured by the negroes who joined the Mexican Colonization Company from Georgia and other Southern States who were taken to the company's lands in the State of Durango, Mex. Goodwin escaped from the colony. The colonists were promised houses, beds, etc., and comfortable quarters and food for all. Goodwin says that none of the conditions of the articles of agreement have been complied with. The people are thoroughly disgusted and would willingly return home were they allowed to do so, but they are guarded by armed Mexicans or Spaniards, and are not allowed to leave the place.

The colonists are housed, or rather penned, in large enclosures built of pea hulls, blocks of clay and dried sod. Each of these enclosures is subdivided into small sections or apartments and each apartment is occupied by one, two and sometimes three families. Access is gained by one entrance to these square structures. The occupants desiring shelter are compelled to build an overhead protection of corn sheaves and whatever else they can find. The food provided for these farm hands who work in the fields from sunrise to sunset consists of beef, coarse bread, corn and water.

The men are aroused from slumber at 4:30 by the blowing of a whistle and after a scant breakfast hitch their mules and start for the fields. Dinner is brought to them in the fields and they continue their labor until sunset. Sunday is not observed as a day of rest and those not caring to put in the seven days are allowed to remain in their quarters, but without rations, as instructions are that those who will not work on Sunday shall not eat.

AN INDIANA MURDER.

It Promises to Develop Into a Sensational and Peculiar Case.

CROWN POINT, Ind., April 13.—What at first appeared to be a rather ordinary and bungling murder committed by a drunken husband at Crown Point, promises to develop into a sensational and peculiar case. Instead of being a practically unknown Bohemian woman, the victim turns out to be the sister-in-law of ex-County Commissioner Michael Wasserman, of Chicago, and wife, undivorced, of about three men.

Her husband, it is thought, is rather a fugitive from justice or has himself been murdered, while the woman's two brothers are locked up practically charged with inciting the husband to murder their sister. A letter written by Ralph Bechtel, of Philadelphia, was found near the body of the murdered woman. The writer (Bechtel) reveals that the woman has been married twice before, and offers to help her in case she should get into trouble over her marriage. First to a Mr. Gregg and then to Ellwanger.

There are plenty of people who believe that the missing husband, Otto Ellwanger, did not murder his wife, and as many more who think he has himself been murdered. He bears the character of a particularly peaceable man. There are evidences that more than one man went to the Ellwanger farm Tuesday morning. The police offered a reward for Ellwanger's apprehension.

An Easter Ball Game.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 13.—Interesting times are expected at the ball park to-morrow, when the game between the Indianapolis and Cleveland club is to be played, or at least attempted. The police department and the sheriff have declared that no Sunday games shall be played in this county. While the club management have determined to play. The grounds for Sunday games are just outside the city limits, but the corporate jurisdiction of the city extends to them. The arrests will be made at the first toss of the ball, and not only will the men be arrested, but the game will not be allowed to continue.

To Arrange a Free Silver Meeting.

CHICAGO, April 13.—The free silver party has its headquarters in Chicago to-day. This morning Gen. J. Warner, the chairman of the national committee, and Congressman Joe Sibley, one of its distinguished Presidential possibilities, arrived at the auditorium. This afternoon they were joined by Senator Jones, of Nevada, and to-night they will leave for the West. To-day's conference was held with some of the Chicago silver people to set in motion the arrangements for a monster free silver mass-meeting to offset the one being arranged for by the Chicago gold men.

Union Pacific Shopmen Kicked.

OMAHA, April 13.—Complaint is made by Union Pacific shopmen that the company is now violating the order of Judge Caldwell prohibiting reduction in wages. Many men were let out during the past few months and then re-employed. When these men were discharged on "account of back work" they were working eight hours per day and now they are hired again to work ten hours per day at the same wages they were getting for eight hours. By this mode wages are said to be reduced in violation of the Order of Judge Caldwell.

Another Jump From Brooklyn Bridge.

NEW YORK, April 13.—A Brooklyn bridge policeman saw a man, apparently 19 years old, climb to the center cable and jump into the river to-day. The man disappeared beneath the surface and never came up. He left behind him a brown cap of tweed material.

Guilt of Manslaughter.

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., April 13.—The jury in the trial of W. A. Stout for the killing of Jasper A. Vest, to-day rendered a verdict of voluntary manslaughter. Six were for acquittal and six for murder and the jury comprised. The punishment is from five to fifteen years in the penitentiary.

Suicide of an Italian Laborer.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., April 13.—Sidro Orfino, an Italian laborer, committed suicide here by throwing himself in front of a freight train. Three years ago he came to the coke region having incurred the enmity of the Mafia in New Orleans and was forced to leave.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

New York Stock Market.

NEW YORK, April 13.—The stock market opened quiet and generally firm and gradually gained strength and activity to a moderate degree, the upward tendency continuing to the close except that in the late dealings some few shares made a partial reaction. The market closed in good tone. During the week the speculation was less active than for several weeks preceding. At the opening there was a renewal of aggressive tactics by the bear operators chiefly against the coal shares. The existing differences in the anthracite coal trade, rumors of a reduction in the dividend rate on New Jersey Central, and reports of an impending hitch in the proceedings which were confirmed later in the week. London was not much of a factor in the week's trading. The sales for the week aggregated 661,355 shares and 124 stocks were dealt in. The changes in prices are mostly in the direction of higher values.

Closing stocks were as follows:
